Holy Family Parish

NEXT WEEK IS MISSION SUNDAY FOR HOLY FAMILY PARISH

A good question is what is Mission Sunday, and why do we have this as part of our faith tradition? The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is now an office of the Vatican, with local offices in most dioceses. However it was formed at the grass-roots level to bring about the spreading of the faith throughout the world, fulfilling the words of Christ to his Apostles: 'Go to all corners of the World and baptize in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.' We know that it is not possible for most of us to pick up and physically go to the remote corners of the world, or even to places within our own country. However, we still have this instruction from our Lord, and one way to fulfill this commandment is to support those that can go. This is the mission of the Society; to support the Church in her mission territories, and it gives us the opportunity to touch hearts and souls in these areas by supporting those physically doing the work.

Following is a brief history of the Society. Pauline-Marie Jaricot founded the Society for the Propagation of the Faith (the largest Society of Catholic Mission) in 1822 in Lyon, France. Born in 1799 to a wealthy family, Pauline at 18 years old was young, rich and beautiful. She was said to have a quick temper and an even quicker tongue – but a great deal of love in her heart. While growing up, Pauline was well aware of the deprivation and trouble in France and other countries around the world. She wanted to raise money for the 'missions' in far off places, so every Friday she went down to the factories to collect money for the workers and servants.

Soon small groups were collecting money regularly each week and also came together to pray for the 'missions'. By 1822, a well-organized mission aid society was established. It was later named the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and Pauline was officially confirmed as its founder by Pope Leo XIII in 1881. From her early teenage years to her death in 1862, Pauline cared for the needs of some of the poorest people in the world. She herself died penniless, still trying to repay the huge debts she incurred while trying to help others.

The Schoenstatt Fathers of India will be with us this year, giving us the opportunity to collaborate with them in their mission. You will find envelopes for this mission in the bulletins and at the entrance of our churches. We do ask you make checks out to Holy Family Parish and use these envelopes so we can keep track of the donations and see that your donations get to the right place. Please be generous in your support for the foreign missions. God bless.

These grants go to parishes that support a local school, and for a direct result of our parishes meeting or exceeding their goal for the Diocesan appeal. With your continued support of the annual appeal, Holy Family Parish will continue to be a recipient of this grant in the future. God bless
