From the Principal

The school would like to thank Duane Rogers and his Saints Scramble Fundraiser committee, Sara Knapp, Michael Higgins, Marty MacEachern, Chris Mara, Misty Rogers, Tom Farrell, Scott Kennedy and Fr. Weighner for their work. This year the weather cooperated and we had the most golfers in the history of the event! The day raised over $7,800.00 for the school. Thank you to all that participated.

Tomorrow, Friday May 12th will be Student Appreciation Day at Prairie Catholic. We will again have activities for the students in the afternoon. Students are allowed to wear athletic clothing.

Fr. Weighner is offering a Send Off Mass to the 8th grade students leaving for Washington DC on Saturday, May 13th at 4:00pm St. Gabriel's Mass.

Please keep our Washington DC travelers in your prayers as they are gone. The 8th grade students will be traveling with parents the 14th through the 20th. Have a great time and enjoy it as you have earned it.

Wednesday, May 17th the 4th grade will travel to Villa Louis from 11:30am until 3:00pm.

The Student Council will sponsor a Favorite Team dress day on Wednesday, May 17th. A $1 donation will allow the students to dress in their favorite team apparel and shorts.

Friday, May 19th the 6th Grade will be kayaking on the backwaters of the Mississippi. Have a good time.

Friday, May 19th the 7th Grade will be traveling to Galena, IL to visit St. Michael's Church and President U.S. Grants home.

The Pre-Kindergarten will have their parents program on Friday, May 19th at 1:30pm in Mrs. Steiner's classroom.

The Cash Raffle Drawing will be hosted at the Bohemian Dinner on Sunday, May 21st at St. John's Church. If you have not return your tickets, please do so by Monday, May 15th.
