Home Communion Minister Training

Bringing home communion to the sick and the disabled is an important ministry in Holy Family Parish. Although this ministry is still restricted at the hospital, for many of the parish's home-bound elderly the visit of the communion minister is the only direct contact that individual has with the parish. Over the past year, a good number of parishioners have volunteered their service. A number of questions have arisen about what this service is to consist of and how it is to be conducted. A meeting will be held at Deacon Mark's home, 304 S. Jackson Street (at the east end of Iowa Street) on Thursday evening, May 19th, at 7:00pm to help answer questions. New communion ministers are strongly encouraged to attend. Veteran communion ministers are welcome as well, in order that their experiences can be shared. Finally, any parishioners who are interested in becoming a communion minister are invited.

Here is the latest update on the 2021 Diocesan Annual Appeal in relation to our parish: As of 5/09/2022, the pledged to date is $60,930 which is 91.70% of the target from 238 parish households out of approximately 750. There is $5,515 left to pledge. We need the support from all our parishioners to at least reach and exceed the target. Any money over the target is returned to the parish to support the parish budget. When you send in your pledge card and/or donation, you can send it directly to the diocese. Please remember that if the balance is not paid by June 30th, it will have to come out of the parish checking account which is used to pay expenses.

In the past two issues of the bulletin, a list of building and grounds projects with costs was printed replacing the air conditioning systems in the school basement and St. Gabriel Church, a boiler in St. John Church, and a big bill to pay. A bit of good news to help pay for these items is $48,000 will come from the parish endowment trust. This money was generated by dividends and interest earned. That gives a start on the money needed to pay for these projects
