May 14, 2023 6th Sunday of Easter

The parish is seeking to hire a part-time person (20 hours per week) for janitorial and other duties beginning June 1st. Duties include cleaning both churches, parish hall, and St. John School weekly; other duties to be outlined later. Candidates should have knowledge and prior janitorial experience. If interested, contact Msgr. Stoetzel at 608-326-6511 by May 15th.

If any parishioner is in need of financial assistance due to the flood, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of La Crosse has some funding. Please call the parish office (608-326-6511) during business hours for the contact person and number.

The solemnity and holyday of the Ascension of Our Lord is celebrated traditionally forty days after Easter Sunday. Most diocese in the United States including the Diocese of La Crosse transfer it to the nearest Sunday which this year is May 21st.

The pastoral council for the 2022-23 will be completing the year on June 30th. Elections were slated for the first weekend of this month to fill three positions but there were only two parishioners who desired to be on the council; so the elections were not held. We want to thank Mary Novey and Mark Forsythe for completing their terms. For the 2023-24 year, the following parishioners with Msgr. Stoetzel will comprise the council: Charlie Connell and Donna Steiner as appointed by the pastor, Steve Lechnir and Barb Welsch in their second year of their first terms, Ann Grunwald and Mary Stoeffler in their first year of their first terms, and Molly Kirschbaum serving another year. Those who are elected can serve up to three-two year terms. If any registered parishioner wants to be considered for election to the council, please read the information that is printed in the bulletin in February.

A very Happy Mother's Day to all who are celebrating today! May God's blessings come upon you and your family. Thank you for your tender care and love and nurturing your children in the Faith.
